

PLACED ON TRIAL IN LOUISA SHOOTING CASE

Woman Taken to Court by Sheriff as Defense Witness.

Special to The Times-Dispatch
RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 21.—Mrs. Teresa Hayes, widow of James C. Hayes, a member of the M. J. Groves Lime Co., Stephens City, is at work again after falling headlong from a structure a distance of forty-five feet and landing on a pile of jagged rocks. Workmen said they expected to find Groves dead. He was found unconscious and was carried to a hospital here at night and attended by doctors. The following morning a physician went into Groves' room, expecting to find him in a serious condition. Asked how he felt, the man stretched himself and yawned and replied that, except for being a bit sore and stiff, he felt all right.

LONE BANDIT HOLDS UP SECTION GANG

Special to The Times-Dispatch
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Nov. 21.—A lone bandit who it is alleged had shortly before pillaged the home of Hamilton Crosson, a railroad man, held up Mr. Seales and his gang of thirteen workmen with two revolvers while he hacked into the nearby woods and escaped.

A man shortly before had been seen coming out of the Seales home, then unoccupied by a neighbor, a Mr. Peyton, who called on him to bathe. The master and his two sons, the ministers home, had followed in his wake in default of pay and later escaped, since which he has not been seen.

The bandit was tried in connection with the hold-up and was given a term of one year in jail, however, was released on bail pending action on an appeal by the state. Court. It is believed that today in circuit court Judge Parker P. Roland, T. G. Hammock, W. S. Allen, James and Ivy Vest, the two being colored, it was agreed that all should be tried together.

MES OF WHISKY

MASH OVERCOME TWO

FOLK, Va., Nov. 21.—Whisky for stills reported operating at Little Creek, near this yesterday. Drs. Agents J. G. and J. M. Houghins were some by forces of whisky much large scale and by frantic efforts recovered.

Walking through a wood they fell a newly dug hole which was filled with bunches of trees and to hide it from sight, other agents following found Griffin Houghins unconscious in the hole.

Holding handkerchiefs over noses and mouths the rescuers freed the says and succeeded in getting the unfortunate man to the car. The investigation disclosed no whisky still surrounded by strong barrels of mash.

GES REFERENDUM ON ROAD BOND ISSUE

FOLK, Va., Nov. 21.—A referendum to increase the road taxes used in the interest of Altavista, a member of the House of Delegates from Nottoway County, Mr. Smith, who was one of the leaders of the fight in the legislature of the legislature for the first time, having voted in favor of the bill, it would be impossible for the legislature to pass the bill, according to the guidelines issued by Governor Trumbo, who had called an emergency session. However, the county delegates decided that the Governor should call legislation together as early as possible, so that a showdown could be had between the two bodies of the legislature on the issue of the bond issue.
